

Service standard: Complaints & Feedback

How to complain about a CHADD service and what to expect

At CHADD we aim to provide all our tenants and service users with a high standard of service. If something does go wrong we will listen, try to resolve it at the earliest opportunity and learn from it to improve our services.

But if we do not achieve this and you need to make a formal complaint this guide explains what to expect.

Our standards

- We welcome complaints to help us improve our services
- We make it quick, simple and easy to give us your thoughts and feedback
- We will listen
- Act to resolve concerns early on and informally
- Deal with complaints impartially, objectively and professionally
- Keep your personal details safe and confidential
- We will keep you informed throughout process
- We will be clear if the desired outcome is unrealistic and why, we will explore whether an alternative compromise to suit all is an option

What we will do when we receive feedback or a complaint

If we receive praise we will:

- Record it
- Share it with the relevant team and manager
- With your permission use it as a good news story in our publications (such as newsletters)
- Suggestions can be made on how to improve the service to the team who work with you

If we receive a complaint we will:

- Aim to resolve it informally and quickly at a local level
- Acknowledge your formal complaint at stage one within 5 working days if you are not satisfied with informal outcome
- Carry out enquires and respond with an outcome within 10 working days
- Acknowledge your stage two formal complaint if you are still not happy with the outcome, which will be acknowledged by the CEO within 5 days and to be resolved within 20 working days
- Refer you to independent bodies if CHADD is unable to satisfactorily resolve your complaint
- You can have a representative to help you with the complaint
